UNE LETTRE DE LA DIRECTRICE

Si je devais résumer l’année 2022 en trois mots, je choisirais reprise, partenariat et communauté !

Reprise. En 2022, l’AFNO a retrouvé son rythme d’avant la pandémie, avec le retour des étudiants et des membres près à s’investir à nouveau dans l’apprentissage du français. Ce fut également l’année du retour d’une programmation culturelle riche et originale, avec des événements tels que Festinema, la Nuit des Gourmets ou My French Book Fest.

Partenariat. Si l’Alliance a pu mener de si beaux projets et retrouver son dynamisme, cela fut grâce à de solides partenaires comme la Villa Albertine, l’Institut Français, le New Orleans Jazz Museum ou encore les écoles d’immersion.

Après 2 ans de pandémie, l’AFNO a pu renouer les liens avec les écoles à l’occasion de Festinema mais surtout de My French Book Fest. L’année 2022 marque aussi le rôle nouveau joué par l’AFNO au sein de la fédération des AF aux États-Unis. Enfin, c’est grâce au soutien de l’Institut Français que l’AFNO a pu rénover sa bibliothèque pour offrir à ses membres un espace moderne et chaleureux !

Communauté. En offrant des cours de créole, l’AFNO réaffirme son soutien à la préservation des cultures et des langues de la Louisiane. Ensuite, le succès de l’Eco-Fair(e) en mai positionne également l’AFNO comme une organisation ancrée dans son environnement, à la disposition des non-profits et des acteurs culturels qui se mettent au service de la communauté. De plus, l’AFNO est un centre culturel où les francophones et francophiles sont accueillis depuis des décennies, ce qui donne lieu à une communauté de francophones harmonieuse et enrichissante.

L’AFNO se développe, elle grandit, se réinvente et se questionne sans cesse pour être toujours plus à l’écoute de sa communauté. Elle ressemble aux personnes qui la font vivre : ses membres, ses apprenants bien sûr, les enseignants, le staff, les membres du Conseil d’Administration et enfin les donateurs, qui nous soutiennent et nous permettent d’imaginer le futur ! Merci à tous !

If I had to sum up 2022 in three words, I'd choose renewal, partnership, and community!

Renewal. In 2022, AFNO recovered its pre-pandemic rhythm, with the return of members and students who were ready to resume learning of French. It was also the year we returned to our rich and unique cultural programming, with events such as Festinema, Nuit des Gourmets and My French Book Fest.

Partnerships. If the Alliance was able to accomplish such wonderful projects and regain its dynamism, it was thanks to solid partners such as the Villa Albertine, the Institut Français, the New Orleans Jazz Museum, and the French immersion schools. AFNO was able to renew ties with the schools through Festinema and, above all, My French Book Fest. 2022 also marked the AFNO’s new role within the Federation of AF in the United States. Finally, thanks to the support of the Institut Français, AFNO has renovated its library to offer its members a modern and welcoming space.

Community. By offering Creole courses, AFNO reaffirmed its support for the preservation of Louisiana’s cultures and languages. Next, the success of the Eco-Fair(e) in May also positions AFNO as an organization rooted in its environment, at the service of the community and available to other green initiative non-profits and cultural partners. Plus, the AFNO is a cultural center where francophones and francophiles have been welcomed for decades, resulting in a harmonious and enriching community of French speakers.

AFNO is developing, growing, reinventing itself and constantly questioning itself to be ever more in tune with its community. It resembles the people who bring it to life: members, students, teachers, staff, Board of Directors and finally donors, who support us and enable us to imagine the future! Thank you all so much!

Émilie Georget
Executive Director, AFNO
Our comprehensive range of classes caters to all levels, from beginners to advanced learners, and all age groups, from children to adults. We offer both small group courses and private lessons for all. From traditional classes to specialized programs like our themed courses and French Cinema, the AFNO provides a dynamic and immersive language learning experience celebrating the Francophone world. Additionally, AFNO is a certified testing center for the DELF, DALF, and TEF exams.

OUR TEAM OF TEACHERS

The AFNO provides high-quality French education thanks to its highly-qualified and motivated team of teachers, mostly natives of Francophone countries.

2022 BY THE NUMBERS

450 students in 2022

87 students in private lessons

541 group courses enrollments

100 group courses offered

13 workshops
HOURS OF COURSES SOLD

8,030 hours of small group courses
280 hours of conversation
868 hours of private courses
171 hours of online courses

In 2021, 60% of courses remained online. In 2022, 54% courses were onsite, and 46% online, demonstrating the students’ needs and wishes to come back in our facilities to be fully immersed in a French-speaking environment while taking French lessons.

The AFNO proposed new courses to fit its community’s needs and expectations, with English courses for foreigners, Creole courses, but also offsite courses at the New Orleans Jazz Museum and at Ecole Bilingue.

STUDENT SURVEY RESULTS

Great organization and purpose. I have enjoyed very much my French classes so far and I plan to continue taking them for another year. I want to progress to the B level and maybe a bit farther if time permits. I plan on traveling to France in the summer of 2023. I enjoy receiving your emails and learning about the activities offered through ANFO. I wish I lived closer to attend them.

The class uses the book which I enjoy because of structure and predictability but the class also veers towards the collective interests or topics of the members of the class.

Our instructor is very friendly, extremely patient and does a terrific job of evenly calling on us in class to participate.

“I like everything so far. My instructor is very informative and knowledgeable. I like that the class is interactive. I like that it forces me out of my comfortable zone when it comes to speaking French. Also, I like the objectives and expectations for this class. Right now, I can’t think of anything I would change.”

Love the constant encouragement to try, even if you don't know the correct words, to speak French.

I like the size of the class. It is quite small, and it almost feels like private classes.

FESTIVAL DE LA FRANCOPHONIE → MARCH 3-22

In March 2022 the AFNO highlighted the Mois de la Francophonie (Francophone Month) through a series of in-person and online events. The events included a Soirée Contes, Caravane Fest, L’After, a special discussion on Québec, an outdoor Open House, and francophone targeted Ciné-Club. Throughout the month, over 386 people attended these events. With its partners, the AFNO dove into the heart of French-speaking cultural diversity with our programing for all French speakers and those interested in French-speaking cultures in New Orleans.

ECO FAIR(E) → MAY 14

The Alliance Française organized a fair for ecological organizations in New Orleans to facilitate the search for volunteers, donors and to raise awareness amongst locals to adopt more environmentally conscious practices. The AFNO invited organizations in different fields from reducing waste, to local farming, to education. Some panels focused on urbanization and ecology in New-Orleans, how to make Mardi Gras greener, as well as general education on ecological movements.
FESTINEMA JR. → APRIL

Festinema Junior is an annual francophone film festival created by the Federation of Alliance Françaises in the USA for a young audience of 4 to 18 years old. Due to the pandemic, AFNO organized the festival both in classrooms and at the AFNO. In 2022, AFNO showed films to 365 school age students. This event is an occasion to encourage the understanding of cultures and social subjects through film.

CAFÉ POLYGLOT → APRIL 8 & OCT. 5

Partnering with Casa Espagna and the American Italian Cultural Center, the Alliance Française participated in two Polyglot Cafés in 2022. The first was hosted in the backyard and was a grand success.

CNIMA ACCORDION WORKSHOP → MAY 30-JUNE 3

Partnering with CNIMA, the AFNO offered a five (5) day festival of workshops during which students could learn to play the accordion. It was open to all levels, ages, and styles. It was complimented by a concert with Instructors Nathalie Boucheix and Jacques Momeet.
BASTILLE DAY FÊTE → JULY 14

In 2022 the Alliance Française of New Orleans hosted its second consecutive event celebrating the French national holiday. The event attracted over 350 attendees and was a great fundraiser for the organization raising over $8,650. The event included live music by Alexis and the Samurai, French-Algerian DJ GAC, a champagne bar, crêpes, a silent auction, a wine raffle, and children’s activities.

SOIRÉE BRETONNE → OCTOBER 24

In partnership with la Region Bretagne and Breizh Amerika, Alliance Française de la Nouvelle Orléans hosted an evening to celebrate the region of Brittany. Two leading actors of the Breton traditional musical scene, Thomas Moisson and Roland Conq, played music. They will brought together old and new, blending traditional trance like rhythms with modern sounds to have you dancing the night away. The evening included the screening of the documentary film, “Copains Comme Cajuns”, that explored the surprising similarities between Louisiana and Brittany, from historical links to language loss.
MY FRENCH BOOK FEST → NOV. 3-5

The Alliance Française hosted a multiple day children’s French literature festival. Highlights included a youth French book fair, live performances, French author Wilfred Lupano, digital arts activities, workshops, and children’s story time. Participants of all ages were able to enjoy a virtual reality experience which allowed them to discover France’s most famous French monuments and paintings. Authors and editors were local, from Canada, and France. In partnership with New Orleans French Immersion Schools, the Alliance Française hosted educational field trips Nov. 3 and 4.

This festival was organized in collaboration with the Villa Albertine in New Orleans, French Institute of the United States, and the Consulate General of France in Louisiana.

Nuit des Gourmets → OCT. 26

A fundraiser and celebration of French and Creole gastronomie at the renowned restaurant Commander’s Palace. The event was a reception-style event of food and wine pairings with the distinguished presence of Nathalie Beras, Consule de France.

Music was provided by New Orleans Jazz Museum with Anna Laura Quinn.

French President’s Visit → DEC. 2

New Orleans was visited by French President Emmanuel Macron and his wife Brigitte Macron. This official visit symbolizes more than ever the close bonds between France and New Orleans, and the key role played by Louisiana in the francophone world. The AFNO staff participated in the organization of that visit, supporting the French Consulate in Louisiana.
AFNO boasts a large and diverse French language library. One of the largest French collections in New Orleans, we are open to the public, though borrowing privileges are for AF members or BiblioCarte holders only. We add titles monthly, and feature French reading for all ages, and French educational resources.

In 2022, the AFNO has benefited from the support of Institut Francais through the Fonds Médiathèques XXI to modernize and renovate the library. The goals were to strengthen the links between educational activities and the media library, and to broaden the audience, through enhanced programming and a warmer welcome for families. As a result of those renovations, the media library space is undoubtedly more modern and pleasant, and the public are making it their own, not only for reading, but also and above all for borrowing books.

COMMUNITY PARTNERS

The Alliance Française de La Nouvelle-Orléans is a member of the Federation of Alliances Françaises USA. The United States is the country with the most Alliances Française chapters worldwide, with a total of 105 chapters across 45 states. The AFNO also maintains strong partnerships with the Consulate General of France in Louisiana, Villa Albertine and the Cultural Services of the French Embassy in New York. Finally, the Institut Français in Paris is a strong partner to access French cultural programing such as Culturethèque.com and films used for our Ciné-Club screening through the IFCinema platform.
